

Memorandum 90-57

Subject: Study L-3033 - Notice in Probate Where Address Unknown (Draft of Tentative Recommendation)

At the March Meeting, the Commission decided to revise the general notice provisions in the Probate Code relating to how notice is given where a person's address is unknown. Attached to this memorandum is a draft tentative recommendation to implement this decision.

The staff recommends that this material be included in Senate Bill 1775 in this legislative session. The amendments are technical and should not be controversial. Accordingly, we do not believe that the recommendation needs to be distributed for comment. Amending the bill now would have the effect of revising the new Probate Code before it goes into effect.

Respectfully submitted,

Stan Ulrich

Tentative Recommendation

relating to

NOTICE IN PROBATE WHERE ADDRESS UNKNOWN

Under the general provisions of the Probate Code, if the address of a person to be given notice is not known, notice is to be given "to the person at the county seat where the proceedings are pending."¹ The meaning of "county seat" is not clear,² but whatever it means, this provision is not likely to result in actual notice. In practice, notice under the county seat provision is permitted only if the person giving notice describes the search made in an affidavit.³

Under the Trust Law, if the address of a person is unknown, the court may dispense with notice or order that notice be given under Code of Civil Procedure Section 413.30 which provides for notice in a manner reasonably calculated to give actual notice.⁴ The Commission recommends that the general notice provisions in the Probate Code be revised to adopt the Trust Law scheme.

1. Prob. Code §§ 1215(d) (mailing in general), 1220(a)(3) (mailing notice of hearing) [as these sections are proposed to be enacted by Assembly Bill 759]. Both of these sections continue a provision found in former Section 1200.5(b), which continued nearly identical language in Section 1200 of the Probate Code as enacted in 1931 ("addressed to them . . . at the county seat of the county where the proceedings are pending").

2. The reference to the "county seat" originated in the 1873-74 amendments of Section 1304 of the Code of Civil Procedure, which added the language "addressed to them [heirs], and deposited in the Post Office at the county seat of the county where the proceedings are pending." 1873-74 Code Amend. ch. 383, § 164. On its face, this statute appears to provide for general delivery at the post office in the county seat. This language survived until 1929 when Section 1304 was amended to delete the reference to depositing the notice at the post office. (1929 Cal. Stat. ch. 78, § 1.)

3. See, e.g., Ross & Moore, California Practice Guide: Probate ¶¶ 3:209-3:211, 3:472-3:472.1 (Rutter Group, rev. ed. #1, 1989).

4. Prob. Code § 17102.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION

Comment. Subdivision (a)(3) of Section 1220 is amended to adopt the general rule in Section 1212 applicable where notice is required to be mailed to a person whose address is unknown. See the Comment to Section 1212.
